

STATUTORY DECLARATION OF FREEDOM

I

of (current address)

.....
do solemnly and sincerely declare that (*apart from my marriage to:

at

on the day of

I have never been through any form of marriage either civil (including civil partnership) or religious, and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835.

Declared by the above mentioned

Signature

at this..... day of

Before me,

(LS)

.....

A Commissioner for Oaths

Please delete as appropriate (The passage in bracket refers to any previous or current marriage and NOT THE FORTHCOMING MARRIAGE)

IMPORTANT!

Please note that this Statutory Declaration must be completed in front of a UK Solicitor/ Commissioner for Oath. Apart from a signature this Statutory Declaration must have official seal/ stamp. If the solicitor does not have such a stamp, then a business card or Law Society note giving the solicitor's details must be attached to this Declaration.